ADVANCED PLAY PRODUCTION CLASS – CLASS EXPECTATIONS

Class Commitments –

Rehearsals will be held on Friday Evenings 5:30-8:30 &/or Saturday afternoons 12:00-5:00pm January 5- February 24, 2018. If needed, there will be extra rehearsals during the Performance Week(s) February 16-24, in the evening 6:00-8:30pm. Performances will, hopefully, be Friday and Saturday Evenings February 23 & 24. If the weekend is not feasible for students or the performance venue, the performances may move to a couple of week days during that time frame. Performances will be set after auditions and when the location is booked. Students are expected to attend all required rehearsals and performances, be on time, and be prepared.

Tuition –

Tuition for the entire class is $255. It may be paid in portions; $85 by November 18, 2017, $85 on January 12, and $85 on February 9, 2018.

You may receive $10 off by if you choose to pay the balance on November 18, if you refer a friend who registers for the class, or if siblings register together.

Memorization –

Students are expected to study and memorize scripts outside of class and to be ready on memorization deadlines: January 19 & 20, 2018.

Costumes –

Costumes will be provided for the students. However, students will be responsible for shoes socks/stockings, slippers, under t-shirts etc. If students or their families happened to own prop, set, or costume pieces that they are willing to share with the production that would be much appreciated.

Scenery/ Prop/ Costumer construction –

Students will be asked to participate in at least 3 tech days to help with tech construction. Tech days will be scheduled on Thursday afternoons/evenings. Family and friends are asked to help on dress rehearsal and performance days.
